Steve & I met in 2014, he in April & I in May, after we both moved to Kalama Heights in Kihei. He said to me, "why aren't you married?" I said I didn't want to be, & he said "I don't either". Then began a very close friendship that soon became a very special love for each other & the next 3 year's of him wanting to get married. Eventually, I would have agreed to that, but there were others who would not. I'll probably always regret that I didn't do that for you, Steve, but I'm glad I was there when you took your last breath, still speaking of my being a good wife...someday. I'll always love you Steve....you know love never dies. A Hui Hou
