Glenn Kamalani McLean

JUN 25, 1951 - DEC 1, 2017

Glenn Kamalani McLean (Chuckie Boy) of Waikapu & Hana, Maui passed away on December 1, 2017 of pneumonia. He was born on June 25, 1951 in Honolulu.

After retiring as a fish wholesaler, he returned to school and earned a Bachelors of Arts degree in Hawaiian Studies with a deep interest in preserving the mana'o of Maui's kupuna. He lived everyday to the fullest surfing, fishing, playing music, travelling, caretaking older family members and enjoying his community and his family.

He is survived by his partner Kathryn Underwood; brothers, Jerry (Vickie) McLean, Grant (Marge) Akana and sister, Noelani Akana; three children Tia McLean, Luke McLean and Iliahi McLean and three grandchildren Riley Agpalo, Naia Hagemann and Amira Hagemann.

A Celebration of Life will be held at the Hana Bay Pavilion on July 21st at 10:30 a.m.

Just found out about the passing of brother Glenn, my surfing mentor, shared so many good moments working with him at ting's and fresh island fish where we surfed Ma'alaea many times. Just a few years ago we met in Hana and surfed Hamoa, it was great to see him and was the last. Rest In Peace my brother, but you will live in my memory.
