I am so very, very sad to learn of the passing of this sweet, kind and beautiful woman. Lynne worked with my husband and so our friendship was a casual one, formed over 10 years, through the times that I visited the office, attended company functions and provided food pics from VIPs Food shows. She was one my favorite people at VIP. She always invited me into her office where she made time to chat with me for a bit. We talked about our shared love of dream catchers, essential oils, music and pondered if we might even be related through our Native American Indian roots. Our conversations were always punctured with laughter and endless smiles. I wish I had spent time with Lynne outside of VIP, something we said we would do "one day", but never got around to it. I will cherish always the times I got to spend with this bright light and truly special soul... To all her loved ones - I am so very sorry for your great loss. Lynne and I would talk daily, we visited mom when we could, we spoke of our husbands being in heaven, we did sleepovers when our schedules allowed, we shared essential oils, she was my biggest grief supporter, she was my best friend and I miss her so much. I can't believe that our last conversation was about getting her house and car disinfected so she could come home and her making sure that her babies were ok. Fly like an angel you are and please check in with me when u have time. I miss you, I love you ❤️🙏
