Christopher Steven MacLeod

SEP 23, 1975 - APR 14, 2022

C hristopher S. MacLeod

Christopher was born in Selma, Oregon (a small town in southern Oregon) on September 23, 1975. He was the fourth out of the five children and second son of Don and Mardie MacLeod. Chris was a happy and content child. He loved everyone and had a bit of a wild streak. The MacLeod family moved to Portland, OR in 1984. Chris graduated from Sunset High School (Beaverton, OR) in 1993 and George Fox University (Newberg, OR) in 1996. He graduated early with a major in accounting and ran cross-country. Chris worked as a CPA in Portland until moving to Oahu in January 2004. He began working for Marriott shortly after and became the Area Director of Finance. Chris made a brief move to California in 2007 with the company and then moved to Maui in 2008. Chris and Catherine met in 2007 and starting dating in early 2008. They moved to Portland, OR where they were married in Timberline Lodge on Mt. Hood, December 3rd, 2011. Their first son Jonathan was born on January 23, 2013. A few months later, they moved back to Maui. Chris and Catherine welcomed their second son Matthew on September 12, 2014 who was born on Oahu.

Everyone that knew Chris loved his affectionate smile, contagious laugh, and bright aura.

Chris was a devoted husband and loved Catherine so much. Catherine is his happily ever after, his person – and vice versa. He was a very proud and doting father to his four boys. Catherine and his boys are his everything – his world. You could see and feel how much he loved them just by the way he looked at them. Chris was a sports fan and his favorite teams were the Seattle Seahawks, Oregon Ducks, and Portland Trailblazers. He enjoyed spending time with family, traveling, running, mountain & road biking, golf, and football; but, above all else, Chris loved his Lord and Savior Jesus Christ and this is why his love for Catherine and his boys shone to everyone who knew him.

Brent Samodurov posted:

366 days have come and gone since we lost this father, husband, son, brother, friend, colleague and teammate. His 46 years were marked by humility, generosity and kindness. He lifted others, while seeking nothing for himself. When mountains of adversity threatened to alter his course, MacLeod followed the approach he had learned during his time as an elite runner: Lowering his head and leaning into the incline of the mountainside, MacLeod shortened his stride, pumped his arms and worked harder to maintain his pace. He applied grit and determination to his efforts in all walks of life. And he found reasons to laugh and smile in all situations. The season for mourning this great loss has drawn to a close. For me the time has come to follow his example in my own life in a way that honors his. For me, now is the time to make this man famous. In life he eschewed the spotlight and attention. I am compelled to share this man's story with the world, so they can benefit from knowing of the elegant simplicity that was the life of Chris MacLeod.
