Alexander Nakatani

JUN 25, 1936 - JUN 14, 2023

Al (Alexander) Nakatani
June 25, 1936 - June 14, 2023

Al peacefully joined his three sons Glen, Greg and Guy on June 14, 2023, at home under the compassionate care of Hospice Maui with his loving wife Jane by his side. Born in Hilo Hawaii, he was the son of the late Harriet and Takeo Kawakami and brother of the late Francis Soares.

Al is survived by his wife of 62 years Jane (Shimoda), hanai sons Richard Carr, Paul Tonnessen and loving granddaughter Kyrie Agdinaoay. He is also survived by sister and brother in laws, the late Walter (Nancy) Shimoda, Lois (Walter) Uehira, Ruth (Charles) Oshiro, Charlotte (the late Ray) Tomooka, Naomi (Stephen) Kemble, and the late Michael and Jerry Shimoda and by many more dear relatives and friends.

Al, along with his wife Jane co-founded “Honor Thy Children” a non-profit they established to continue to carry their late son Guy’s mission and message of the importance of love and acceptance for all. Al's advocacy work with Honor Thy Children has been recognized worldwide.

Al served honorably in the U.S. Army, on the board of Maui AIDS Foundation and the advisory board for University of Hawaii School of Social Work.

Brooks Bays posted:

My late partner Jim Ness and I have the great honor and delight of meeting Al and Jane in the late 90s. We worked with them on Honor Thy Children projects, and played with them in Arizona and Hawai'i. Al's compassion, courage, and wicked sense of humor shine in those treasured memories. Al truly honored all his children. Aloha nui loa from Brooks Bays to Jane and all who carry him in their heart.
