aloha my beautiful aunty.....it has been so hard to walk into walmart and not see you. I miss you dropping by to visit me even if its for 5 minutes. I would just like to say . MAHALO...Mahalo for teaching me how to swim, mahalo for all the licks i got with your cane. Mahalo for always been there for all of us regardless of our situation. Mahalo for your Mana'o. Mahalo for checking in on me after mom passed away. You brought this ohana together whether it be by family reunions, parties or just meeting up at the beach. I will never forget you yelling on the football stand. I miss you so much. I love you. TITA-A Aunty Momi, I'll never forget the time you and your husband helped me and my husband saved our 2 year old son when he was choking on a pastry this was just below paia school. If it wasn't for you both he wouldn't be here today. Thank you both from the bottom of our heart. Love the both of you. I'm also from Haliimaile. I was raised and grew up their.
