In Loving Memory of Barbara Ann Winter

Barbara Ann Winter's story began and ended with love and laughter. She departed from this world leaving behind a legacy of joy, a family cherished, and memories that sparkle like the stars. She was the matriarch of a family tree that extends its branches across the ocean, from the sunny shores of Maui to the heart of New Jersey. Her son James (Joni), daughter Janice, grandsons Joshua and Michael, granddaughter Laura, and three great-grandchildren, Charlie, Michael, and Emelia, will carry her spirit forward.

Barbara's life was a parade of festive gatherings, her Christmas parties legendary, her bookshelves a testament to her love of stories. She was the queen of the "small glass" refill, her laughter a melody that resonated in the hearts of her 'ohana' and friends.

As we say aloha to Barbara, let's raise a small glass in her honor, remembering a voice that never faded and a laugh that echoes still.

A celebration of Barbara's Life will be set at a later date.

*In lieu of flowers, contributions to Barbara's favored charity would honor her memory beautifully.

So many memories of Barbara. She made me laugh so many times. Always had a happy face. Before she left, she gave me a heart shaped Mikasa Bone China container. Inside she put some shells from the beach in Hawaii. She told me, " everytime I look at it, to think of her". It is so special to me, when I look at it, I feel the warmth of her smile. Will never forget her. She has a special place in my heart. Miss all of you. Be well, be happy. Love Ruth and Tom.
