Felix Palalon Asenas, 60 Beloved Husband, Father, Uncle, and Friend

It is with heavy hearts that we announce the passing of Felix Palalon Asenas, August 5, 2025, a devoted husband, loving father, and cherished friend, who peacefully passed away surrounded by loved ones.

Born in the Philippines, Felix immigrated to Maui in November 2015 with his wife, son, and wife's siblings in search of a better life. He brought with him a quiet strength, a humble heart, and a generous spirit that touched everyone who knew him.

Felix married the love of his life, Josefina (Josie), in April 1999. Together, they were blessed with their son, Aljames (Allen James), born in September 1996—Felix's pride and joy. He was a hands-on dad and a steady, loving presence in his family's life.

In the Philippines, Felix worked as a bus dispatcher for Eagle Star in Manila. Upon moving to Maui, he began his career at The Ganir Company as a night cleaner, moved on to work with IHOP, where he worked as a busser. He then went to work in the hotel industry, beginning with Ka'anapali Ocean Resort Villas as a houseman. He eventually joined The Westin as laundry person, later transitioning to a utility person. Felix was hardworking, dependable, and took pride in everything he did.

A true sports enthusiast, Felix was a die-hard Lakers fan, always ready to cheer on his team. He also loved to cook—especially Visayan-style dishes—and was known for his perfectly crafted adobo, a dish that brought family and friends together time and again.

Felix will be remembered for his warm smile, his gentle humor, his fierce devotion to family, and the quiet way he made life better for those around him. He leaves behind a legacy of kindness,

Jean Nette lit a candle in honor of Felix.

Our deepest condolences to Cousin Josie and to all our family and friends mourning the loss of her beloved husband, Felix. Felix was one of the kindest souls —always quiet, always steady, with a gentle sense of humor and a strong devotion to family. He made Josie truly happy, and for that alone, he'll always hold a special place in our hearts. One memory that still brings a smile is how he used to gather used boogie boards from hotel guests and save them for us to resell at the surf shop. We'd show up with a pickup truck, excited like kids on Christmas morning. Felix's thoughtful contributions helped our Maui ohana more than he probably ever realized. May he rest in peace, knowing he was deeply appreciated, respected, and loved. With love and aloha, Jeannette Lucero, Maui McMillin, Jason Alvarado and Maya Alvarado
