Gregory Steven Lang

MAY 18, 1963 - MAR 1, 2026

Gregory Lang, beloved father, husband, son, and brother, passed away on March 1, 2026. He was 62 years old.

Greg was born on May 18, 1963 in Anaheim, California, and moved to Michigan around the age of seven, where he would grow up before eventually making his way west.

He built a remarkable career that spanned decades and took him across the country. He began in entry level accounting at Intel in Oregon, rising to Vice President before taking on a CEO role at IDT in Silicon Valley. He later served as President and CEO of PMC-Sierra, where he led the company through significant growth and ultimately guided it through a successful acquisition. After semi-retiring, Greg channeled his drive and vision into a new chapter, purchasing and reviving the Koholā Brewery in Maui, Hawaii alongside his wife, Mary, turning it into a beloved gathering place for the community he called home.

Greg was a man of great passion and even greater presence. He was devoted to fitness and the outdoors, and could just as often be found snowboarding, wakeboarding, or scuba diving as he could behind a desk. He was a lifelong Michigan Wolverines fan, a lover of rock music, and a dedicated traveler who embraced everything life had to offer. Those who knew him well also knew his love for his cats, his meticulous organization, and his ability to make anyone feel taken care of.

He is survived by his wife Mary Anderson, his son Tyler Lang, his daughter Amanda Lang, his mother Theresa Crotty, his brothers Doug and Keith Lang, the mother of his children Dina Lang, as well as a wide and loving extended family of nieces and nephews who were all better for having him in their lives. He was preceded in death by his father, Jerome, his brother, Jay, and his nephew, Luke.

Greg lived on his own terms, built things that lasted, and showed up for the people he loved without exception. He will be deeply missed.

Ariana Lang lit a candle in honor of Gregory.

When Vanora died he was willing to pay for a full Disney trip experience for me and my mother and father, my father kept the gift stored away for years, and I never knew. When my parents divorced my dad asked my uncle if he could now have the gift, with the kindness of his heart he gave it, and paid for a full cruise on the Disney wish, and he got us the most beautiful suite next to the pilots of the boat. He was an amazing man and I am forever grateful he blessed me with that experience and my God bless his heart. He is with my sister and my grandpa now.

I met Greg at Intel. We were both working in marketing, trying to bring video conferencing into the world. He was the guy in the room focused on ROI. Great feature but what will it cost? Soon afterward I met his amazing wife Dina and their two kids Amanda and Tyler. Together we became partners in adventure. Every year we rented a houseboat on Lake Shasta. Greg taught the kids how to wakeboard, music blaring from his cool boat speakers. Dina would teach them arts and crafts. My kids always ate all their pop tarts! We spent years together on the Rogue river, rafting and crafting and telling tales around the campfire. We raised our kids together from kindergarten to high school graduation. Greg was never on the sideline watching. He was always helping out, part of the team to set up camp. Greg was larger than life, in presence and stature. He was a wise cracker with a wonderful grin, twinkly blue eyes and deep undercurrent. I can't wrap my head around the fact that he is gone. I am grateful to have been on some of my favorite life adventures with him. Our hearts are with his family, he left us too soon. Vicki Pierce Quenneville
