I will never forget my dear Uncle Leroy - who taught me how to drive, and the endless lessons in parallel parking, where finally he gave in and told me it was ok to back in until I hit the curb. The Uncle Leroy who taught me how to make a poodle from a balloon, or the easiest way to remember greater than and less than in mathematics. lol. My heart and prayers go out to his children and family of whom he always spoke so fondly of. He was such a fun soul who always had a story, a way, or a remedy to make others smile. He will be missed. May God bless and keep you through this time while your hearts heal. Love and hugs... Washington, DC 7033472620Niece##imported-begin##Tanyia Troutman##imported-end##

Dear Michele, From what I know of you and your family, it's clear that your father passed on to each of you an impressive degree of integrity, inner strength, determination, and devotion to making your lives count towards the good of others. I don't think a father could be more honored, nor count himself more of a success in life, than by the fruits of his own children's lives. God grant you all peace and comfort in this time of parting, and confidence that, in Christ, you will see him again. Friend of family###imported-begin###Felicity###imported-end##
