If any one from the family can contact me I am working on a project on George Helm and he took a photo of him. Trying to request permission to use his photograph and of course give him photo credits to our finish publish piece when it is completed

It sadden me to hear of Edwin's passing because I would love reading his insightful comments in the Maui News. At times like these it's nice to celebrate what he loved, enjoyed and stood for. There will be a great emptiness in the Maui News with his absence. My heart goes out to his family, friends and colleagues. At such a loss as this, it comforts me to reflect on the scripture in Revelation 21:4 " And he will wipe out every tear from their eys, and death will be no more. Neither will mourning, nor outcry nor paing be anymore; the former things have passed away." May God keep you and bless you...##imported-begin##Lehua Kalua##imported-end##

My deepest condolences to the Tanji ohana. Ed was always a gentleman, and a true professional in the world of journalism. It's amazing how many people's lives he touched as a reporter and editor. It was an honor to work with him during all those years at The Advertiser. I also appreciated the hospitality shown by Ed and Harolyn when visiting Maui with a co-worker a few years back.Aloha Ed, you will be missed.##imported-begin##Bart Asato##imported-end##

Ed, you always had a mischievous smile, but I think you took the cake when you said you'd cut off your pony tail if Mike Lyons wrote a check for $1,000 to the Maui United Way. He did and you did. Thank you for enriching our lives.##imported-begin##Emily Bott##imported-end##
