

Molly G. Taomoto

July 14, 1926 - January 21, 2019

Molly G. Taomoto, 92, of Wailuku, Maui, passed away peacefully on January 21, 2019 with loving family by her side.

Services honoring Mrs. Taomoto were held privately by family.

Molly was born on July 14, 1926 to Mr. Shozo and Mrs. Nabe Gishitomi in Wailuku, Maui. Molly worked at the Wailuku Library as a librarian. Molly left a positive impression on all of those who were fortunate enough to cross her path. People naturally gravitated to her personality, her gratitude, her compassion, and loving nature. When she wasn't working, she enjoyed gardening and spending time with loved ones.

Molly is pre-deceased by her loving husband, Clarence Taomoto.

Molly Taomoto leaves to cherish her memory, daughter, Linda (Clayton) Taomoto-Yagi; sons, Michael Taomoto, and Roland Taomoto; grandson, Glenn (Leah) Antonio Jr.; and 2 great grandsons, Brix and Cade.

The family would like to thank the staff of Roselani Place and Hospice Maui for their loving and compassionate care.

Cemetery

---

Maui Memorial Park

450 Waiale Road

Wailuku, HI, 96793

Comments

---

“ Molly was truly an original and a rare beautiful soul. I worked with Molly at Wailuku Library several years. She was always happy and so good to everyone. She had a beautiful sense of humor and what a wonderful joyous laugh she had. She was always encouraging me and I treasure the letters she wrote to me. So many times she would always say to me, "Go Bryan, do everything you can, have fun, live life." I stopped in to see Molly last July on a visit to Maui and she was the same person that I always remembered. I can't forget the one very funny thing she said to me, "now you know, Bryan, I don't color my hair black anymore and winked" I've taken Molly's spirit with me ever since I knew her and expect to continue keeping her joy of life with me as an inspiration as long as I live. Much sympathy to the whole family

Bryan Thompson - February 05 at 11:37 PM